

Bharati Vidyapeeth's
Dr. Patangrao Kadam Mahavidyalaya, Sangli
Jointly organized
Department of Political Science
And
National Service Scheme
“Celebration of Constitution Day”
26 Nov 2021
Report

Bharati Vidyapeeth's Dr. Patangrao Kadam Mahavidyalaya, Sangli has organized 'Constitution Day' on 26th November 2021. The preamble reading was undertaken by Dr. Vandana Satpute and followed by everyone. Honorable Principal Dr. D. G. Kanase was the President of this function. The Student, Faculty members and non-teaching staff were present at auditorium hall.

The Indian Constitution mainly focuses on fundamental rights and duties of every Indian citizen. On this occasion Principal Dr. D. G. Kanase addressed, that our Indian Constitution has been written by Dr. Babasaheb Ambedkar and it is one of the greatest constitutions in all over the world. Our Constitution has given every citizen of the country an equal right to live in an independent India. In the rea of western culture, the sole purpose of celebrating Constitution among the youth of the country.

Oratory competition was organized of Constitution Day. The competition received enthusiastic response from the students.

The Introduction and Welcome of the programme put forward by Dr. Vandana Satpute. Prof. T. R. Sawant, Incharge of Arts and Commerce Faculty were present for the programme. The Vote of thanks given by Dr. Vikas Awale.

(Dr. Vandana A. Satpute)
Head of Department

(Dr. D. G. Kanase)
PRINCIPAL,
Dr. Patangrao Kadam Mahavidyalaya,
Sangli - 416416 (Sangliwadi)

Celebration of Constitution Day 2021

