One Day Workshop
The Requirement to study Folklore and Folk culture

One day Workshop was organized by Dr. Patangrao Kadam Mahavidyalaya, Sangli on 9th January, 2020 under the leading college scheme entitled The Requirement to Study Folklore and Folk culture. The workshop was organized to guide the students. In the workshop, senior literacies Prof Vajinath Mahajan and honorable Mr. D.B. Patil, poetess Mrs. Pratibha Jagadale, and poet Ravi Rajmane were present. The workshop was held in the presence of honorable Principal Dr. D. G. Kanase. The workshop has been hosted by Prof Pradip Dikule ; coordinator of leading college and Head Of Marathi Department Prof Mrs. Ujwala Desai. The workshop was attended by eighty three students and seven professors from seven colleges.

The dignitaries guided the students in this workshop. With this guidance, in today's storm of globalization and in the age of rapid technological progress, nature-friendly and agrarian folk culture has begun to disappear. Folk literature is a fundamental part of Indian lifestyle and culture. From the study of Folk culture, one understands the folk life, folklore, faith, worship as well as traditions like festival, food, cloths, sports. It enriches folk cultures and alternatively folklore. It is useful to understand the eternal relationship of man with the Panchmahabhutas. Also agriculture gives birth to human culture.

The various forms of Dance Plays like Sumbhran, Jagaran, Gondhal and Tamasha, Bhawada, Lalit, Dashawatar these folk festivals introduced the folk culture. It gives sense of social unity and the joy of collective life. To entertain and To enlighten. These both objectives are achieved by this folk culture. The culture and art created by the people for the people also sheds light on our ancient culture, these requires the study of folklore and folk culture. Thus all dignitaries shed light on this issue to such discussions and created the attitude of the students towards these subject.
