Friday, 26/02/2021

Shivaji University Economics Association, Kolhapur and Bharati Vidyapeeth's Dr. Patangrao Kadam Mahavidyalaya, Sangli (Department of Economics) organized Guidance Lecture of Dr. J. F. Patil, senior economist as Chief Guest of the Guidance Lecture. Principal Dr. D. G. Kanase, Managing Council Member of Shivaji University, Kolhapur was the President for this Guidance Lecture. Prof. T. R. Sawant, was convener of Guidance Lecture.

Dr. J. F. Patil in his speech mentioned banks as blood vessels of economic system. The development of country is depending on the development of banking sector. Banks are depended on trust and not on money. But now a days people are not trustful about the bank which is very dangerous for the development of the country. The expert in economic Dr. J. F. Patil Said that Bank must win the trust of people through transparency of banking system and expected that teacher should teach to the students about 21 Century changing Banking System. Bank is a belief, if you have to survive this then you should spread the information about Banking System among the students. He talked on great job opportunities in places like Indian Banks Association, Import-Export Bank, Rural Development Bank, Small Industries Development Bank, Co-operative Banks. In his speech he said that Economics literacy would be created among the students.

Principal Dr. D. G. Kanase proposed presidential address. He talked on banking services & opportunities. Prof. S. D. Thigale proposed the vote of thanks.
